SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST
Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson, September 24-30, 1972. Subject: "The Forgotten Blessing".
The purpose of this review is to ask these personal questions (1) What have we learned or relearned about the Sabbath and Sabbath observance? (2) How will knowledge be translated into a more victorious daily experience?
The example - We have spoken of the Sabbath as a sign of divine creatorship and redemption. Are we, as a consequence conscious of renewal and victory in our daily lives? Reference has been made to a "missing text". Is that just a point for controversy of does it strengthen your faith in the New Testament Seventh-Day Sabbath observance? We know there is a true and there is a false Sabbath. But do we ask what the divine judgment might be between a really sincere person who unknowingly observes the wrong day. And the man who well knows the true day or rest and yet observes it legalistically and lives an inconsistent life?
In other words, this review is intented to stress supreme importance of truly living our religious beliefs empowered by the love of Christ, of practicing what we profess, of being what we claim to be.
Lesson Outline - Part 1. The Sabbath And Redeeming Love. Gen. 2:1; Joh 38:7 "The heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them". "The morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for you". When there shall be a "restitution of all things which God has spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began" (Acts 3:21). The creation Sabbath, the day on which Jesus lay at rest in Joseph's tomb will also be a day of rest and rejoicing. Heaven and earth will unite in praise as on one Sabbath to another. Isa. 66:23 The nations of the saved shall bow in joyful worship to God and the Lamb. The Desire of Ages pages 769, 770, Part 2. Eternal Love and Mans Obedience Deut. 33:2,3. "And he said, The Lord came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth from Mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a firy law for them. Yea, he loved the people; and his saints are in they hand; and they sat down at they feet; every one shall receive of thy words". Part 3. External Love and Recreation Heb. 1:12; 2 Cor. 17:21. RSV. His Son ... by whom also he (God) made the worlds. "If any one is in Christ he is a new creation." How can man have the experience of conversion and the new creation? By the grace of God in Christ we may put off the corruption and deceitfullness of sin and thus find in Him new spiritual hope and courage. Eph. 4:20-22. Part 4. The Divine Forethought Eph. 1:45 "He hath chosen us in him before the foundations of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love; having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ." Part 5. The Mark of the Maker Ezek. 20:20 "And hallow My Sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the Lord your God." Part 6. Evidence of the Saviour's presence. Lev. 21:23 "For I the Lord do sanctify them" This expression is often used in the Old Testament and we have seen in Ezek. 20:11, 12 that it is connected with Sabbath observance. And I gave them my statutes and shewed them my judgements which if a man do, he shall even live in them. Moreover also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctify them. Please read also verses 13,20 and 21 same chapter and Exodus 31; whole chapter. Read to please Rev. 22: to see and realize the great importance of Commandment keepers - May we all be ready when Jesus does come. Last Sabbath we had several visitors from far away places Mr. James L. Brown of Ellijemy Ga. R. I. Mr. Phillip Snow, his wife and small daughter of Washington, Md., Mrs Frances Stevens of 405 Trumbull, Ave. Bapt, Connecticut. Mr. and Mrs. Doss of Lynchburg Va.

SCOUT DISTRICTS MERGE

A dinner meeting was held Monday night at 7 p.m. at Maude's Restaurant for citizens interested in Boy Scouting in our county and to learn of the plans to merge Boy Scout Districts.
Mr. William Stewart, District Scout Executive of the Central District of Blue Ridge Mountain Council, guest speaker, explained the merger of the Piedmont Council with the Blue Ridge Mountain Council. Appomattox had been associated with the Piedmont Council, and the Lions Club is the sponsor of Boy Scouting.
The Central District covers parts of Nelson, Amherst, Bedford, Campbell and Appomattox Counties. Blue Ridge Mountain Council covers twenty-one counties in all.
Blue Ridge Mountain Council has access to the largest scout camp in the United States. A camp located near Pulaski, the camp consists of 16,000 acres. Last year the local Scout Unit won a prize in the "Keep American Beautiful" phase of the project SOAR. There are 31 boys registered in the local scout troop.
The 1973 National Scout Jamboree will be held in Appomattox October 27 through October 29 at the Appomattox Court House National Historical Park.
Mr. Ken Coy, Chairman of Finance Committee for the Blue Ridge Mountain Council, explained the budget for 1973, amounting to $300,000, with the share for Appomattox set at $1500.00.
There are 301 boys in Appomattox County available for the scouting program. Ivey Holland, Institutional Representative, is in charge of the local campaign for funds.
